NAWIC PNW Region PD&E and DE&I Present:

AUTHENTIC LEADERSHIP

JANUARY 26
11 AM PST

Do you really know who you are as a leader? Have you ever felt like you were not being heard? In this session, we will discuss how to display confidence in your day-to-day interactions to establish your leadership by first understanding yourself and how to walk confidently in your leadership.

Why you should attend:

- Reflect on your own authentic leadership, who you really are as a leader
- Explore strategies for asserting your leadership and ideas while remaining authentic

What you'll learn:

- Identify how to make the most of your day-to-day interactions to assert your leadership
- Identify the image you want to project as a leader and how that aligns with your narrative
