SARAN ALMOND

SARAN ALMOND IS AN AWARD-WINNING TELEVISION HOST AND PRODUCER, AUTHOR, AND COMMUNICATIONS STRATEGIST WITH MORE THAN A DECADE OF EXPERIENCE IN COMMUNICATIONS AND MARKETING. AS THE CREATOR AND HOST OF WHAT WOULD SHE DO?, SHE BUILT A PLATFORM FOR CONVERSATIONS THAT INFORM, INSPIRE, AND CONNECT PEOPLE.

SARAN IS ALSO THE AUTHOR OF THE GOOD IN GOODBYE: FINDING PEACE IN LETTING GO AND FOUNDER OF A SERIES OF FIRSTS, A NONPROFIT CREATING TRANSFORMATIVE EXPERIENCES FOR CHILDREN IN FOSTER CARE.

AS COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER AT NCEDSV, SARAN SPEARHEADED THE HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS FOR YOUTH CAMPAIGN, BRINGING TOGETHER DIVERSE VOICES AND PERSPECTIVES TO CREATE MEANINGFUL CONVERSATIONS ABOUT HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS AND VIOLENCE PREVENTION. THE CAMPAIGN ENGAGED YOUTH AGES 12–24, PARENTS AND CAREGIVERS, EDUCATORS, ADVOCATES, AND YOUTH WITH DISABILITIES IN CONVERSATIONS DESIGNED TO BUILD RELATIONSHIP KNOWLEDGE, STRENGTHEN SAFETY AND BOUNDARIES, AND TO PREVENT DATING VIOLENCE, GROOMING, TRAFFICKING, AND EXPLOITATION.
