Advent
Saint John's
The Episcopal Church
in Pine Meadow, CT

FROM THE PRIEST IN CHARGE –
The Rev. Sandra Cosman

Dear Friends,

December is upon us and Advent is unfolding around us. The Gospel reading for this coming Sunday tells us to "...prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight..." and the busyness of the holiday season is a reality for many of us.

What does preparing the way of the Lord look like for those of us who live more than 2,000 years after the arrival of the Christ child into this world? Each of us is called to prepare our own answer to that question and only you can know what is the right way for you to prepare. For me, preparing the way means:

- To be present to others. To come together with family and friends, colleagues and acquaintances, and the members of my community. Listening, sharing stories, and being together for fun and fellowship is important.
- To prepare my heart for Christmas. The work and worry of holiday preparations can get in the way. Time for quiet, meditation, and prayer are important and holiday decorations are wonderful icons for meditation.
- To find ways to meet God in my neighborhood. Attending community activities, supporting our community charitable activities, and offering support for those less able to face the challenges of the world reminds me of the gifts that I have been given.
- To participate in glorious worship. The Sundays of Advent, Christmas Eve at 5 & 9pm, and Christmas Morning at 9am are a reflection of God's love for us and our love of God.
- To support the good works of the parish. The work of St. John's within our community and in the world, is a reflection on all of us. Our charitable contributions and gifts of time, treasure and talent enliven and enrich our world.
- To grow in the knowledge and love of God. Time with God remembering the story of the Incarnation is possible by listening to and singing the songs and carols of Christmas. Allow your heart to sing as you hear the familiar melodies.
- To remember where you have been and where you are headed. Our stories and God's stories are a wonderful mixture of hope and promise, joy and regret, and success and trying anew. Tell the story to all those you know and love and all those you meet who need hope.

Keep the Faith!

A WORD ABOUT HOSPITALITY

If you have ever read Winnie the Pooh, you will remember that Pooh Bear gets a little peckish, a little hungry, around 11 o'clock. He calls this time the "elevenses." I remember when my children were small, they always needed a little something around 11 o'clock, especially if we had brought them to church. Fast forward to St. John's. Our youngsters need a snack and so do many of us. Coffee hour is a symbol of feeding us spiritually, as well. We get a chance to check in with each other, see how we are doing, find out what is going on in the lives of the people we worship with and care about.

Some parishioners provide coffee hour as a family, and there are a handful of these families who provide it 2-3 times a year. Michelle and I have calculated that if we take away the summer Sundays and the times when the Vestry, Choir and Stone Soup provide coffee hour, there are approximately 37 Sundays that need coverage. It is possible that if each 10 o'clock family signs up for one time, coffee hour would be covered for the entire year. Making it a family project with our children is a wonderful way to reinforce fellowship and sharing.

Please consider signing up for just one Sunday a year. It does not need to be extravagant. Cheese and crackers and some type of sweet are very popular. Directions for making the big pot of coffee are printed in the kitchen, but I can show you how to make it.

Thank you so much.

CHURCH SCHOOL NEWS

With Advent upon us, I hope that you will take a step back from the hustle and bustle of the season to reflect on the great gift we have all been given in the small baby in the stable. Our Godly Play class will be hearing the story of our prophets, the Holy Family, and the shepherds, culminating with the complete story of Christmas called "The Mystery of Christmas" told using beautiful icons and paintings from museums and churches. During Advent, families have the opportunity to light the Advent wreath during the beginning of the service. Please sign up for this and ringing the bell in the narthex.

Christmas Eve we will again hold our traditional family service with our children helping Mother Cosman tell the Christmas story with our manger scene. There will be no Godly Play classes on the 25th and the 1st. We will return with our Epiphany pageant (rehearsal Sat. 1/7, 9-11) on Sunday Jan. 8th. Any children who would like to be part of the pageant need to attend the rehearsal on the 7th. A reminder about the pageant will be sent to families just after Christmas.
