Living Generously November 2016

The red doors beckon us to enter a heavenly refuge in beautiful Pine Meadow. As we enter the doors of St. John's Episcopal Church, we find a sanctuary of worship, ministry, spiritual formation, music, and community. St. John's has such a rich tradition of worship and ministry in Pine Meadow and surrounding communities. Its history is rich and legacy long. My grandparents were members of the parish for many years and I was baptized here over fifty years ago.

Having become actively involved at St. John's over twenty years ago, the church community has and continues to play such an important role in the spiritual life of Lenore and me and our family. Our children, having been baptized by Bishop Ramos, have grown to know and love God through participation in our church school program and by being part of our loving community. Lenore and our family have received abundant blessings through the years as active St. John's members.

We are at a critical juncture in the life of our church. As we look to continue to grow as a parish community and increase our ministries outside the red doors, we need to increase our revenue. This is important if we want to call upon a permanent full time priest in the near future. We have been the beneficiaries of the hard work, dedication, and generosity of those members, like my grandparents, who have gone before us and who laid the foundation for the church we now enjoy.

It is now up to us to continue to lay the foundation for future generations. Please consider the impact this community of faith has had on your own life, the life of your family and the wider community. Please make an effort to pledge if you aren't already doing so. If you are currently pledging, please make an effort to increase your pledge on the path to tithing that reflects your commitment to God and this parish. God wants us to live generously by giving of our time and treasure. This is one way to renew our faith and commitment to Christ and St. John's and to give thanks to God for the many blessings bestowed upon us.

What a wonderful opportunity for us to grow together as a community!

Dear Friends,

Every year at this time we are prompted to reflect on our commitment to the church and the role it plays in our lives. As the years role wondrously by, I become ever more aware of the profound difference that the church and St. John's has made in my life and, in particular, the people that my children have become. The church is important because there are so many factors in modern life that conspire to isolate us: television, cell phones, cars, and the widely dispersed, individual homes we own (mine, I think, owns me). St. John's offers an antidote, a chance to create a tight knit, supportive community in which we can reconnect with people in profound, life-affirming ways.

The instinct that draws us into the St. John's community is the same one that makes us committed to our children and families. We want to nurture, instruct and prepare our children in ways that go beyond food, school and new soccer cleats. We want to ensure that they have time to be instructed in our shared christian heritage, examine its values and beliefs, and, finally, to see those values modeled in people, activities and prayer.

I am extremely proud of my children Henry and Eleanor. They have developed into admirable young adults. It may seem an old fashioned notion but what I cherish most about each of them is their well-grounded character. They are kind, charitable, humble and forgiving. While Caren and I tried our best to model principled behavior at home, the day to day requirements of rearing children meant that we needed reinforcements. First it was All Saints Anglican Church in Milan when Henry was little, then St. Edward the Confessor in Lugano when Eleanor was a toddler, and, for the last 16 years, St. John's has been our spiritual home.

I pray that St. John's means something similar to you. If you are parents of young children, I commend you on the path you have chosen for your children. Join us as often as you can. The vow the congregation makes at a baptism to "support this child in his/her life in Christ" is a commitment we hold most dear.

Wishing you God's love and peace,

Gordon Ross
Senior Warden

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

THE AFFAIR

Outreach Committee Notes From the October 9 2016 Meeting

★New Hartford Day - Jill Healy reported that the day was a great success in that we had great support /volunteers from our parish and that many folks stopped by our tent with interest to learn more about St. John's.

★Hands on Hartford (formerly Peter's Retreat) - After over 25 years of St. John's participation in this mission and following 4 recent Groups of St. John's volunteers providing Sunday dinners (from March – September) it was the general consensus of our committee to discontinue our participation with this mission. The wonderful news is that with major medical advances and innovative programming the health and level of independence of the current residents of HOH is remarkable.

★The Climate Committees for the New Hartford Schools have recently begun to organize fundraising and support for this New Hartford family throughout the school year. Christian, now 5 months old, was born with an extremely rare neurological disorder -Ohtahara syndrome with a KCNQ2 gene mutation. This diagnosis occurs spontaneously and affects only a few hundred children worldwide. This Syndrome causes seizures starting at birth and severe physical and cognitive deficits that will affect Christian's ability to crawl, walk, move his arms, grasp objects, eat, talk, see etc. Christian's parents have continued working in order to maintain their home and health insurance while caring for Christian who needs round-the-clock care, in addition to caring for their other four children, one of whom is Christian's twin brother. Home nursing care, as well as other supportive therapies are unavailable through their insurance. As the schools begin their fundraising and friends and family continue to organize this effort, we will bring further information to our St. John's family and discern how we might contribute to this effort.

★ Appalachia Service Project - For now this projected mission for us has been cancelled due to overall lack of interest/participation. It is our thought that we begin with missions that are closer in proximity and possibly for a day or a weekend time frame. Alternate missions are currently being investigated. All suggestions are appreciated.

★Red Cross Blood Drive - The Red Cross recently approached Sandra with a request to sponsor a Blood Drive here on ..... It was later agreed upon by both parties that we decline due to the date being so close to Christmas and our limited space to proceed.

★Light New Hartford - St John's will be participating in this beautiful evening- more info to follow.

★..Neighbor To Neighbor - There will be a Spaghetti dinner (fundraiser) on February 25th for this amazing program. More info to follow

CHURCH SCHOOL NEWS

November will be a very busy month for our children's Ministry program. We'll begin the month on the 6th with the baptism of one of our nursery members and our Godly Play class in the whole service for this special occasion. The next Sunday, Nov. 13th will be our traditional Stone Soup Sunday when our children hear the story of the Feeding of the 5,000 and make stone soup for coffee hour.

The third Sunday of the month, the 20th will find many of us in Hartford for the diocesan wide worship service lead by our Presiding Bishop, Bishop Curry and our Diocesan Bishop Douglas. I encourage all families to consider attending the service on the 20th in Hartford as Bishop Curry is a very engaging speaker and your children will experience an event with many members of the greater community of the Episcopal church.

The last Sunday of November, the 27th is Thanksgiving weekend. There is no Godly Play that day but there will be nursery coverage.

Looking ahead: Save the Dates:

Dec. 4th- St. Nicholas Celebration
Jan. 8th - Epiphany Pageant
More to come on both events
