

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 6, 2021

O'Donnell & Associates Ranked Top 50 State Lobbyist by City & State NY

City & State's Top 50 State Lobbyists list highlights the most sought-after firms in the business

BUFFALO, N.Y.- Government relations firm, O'Donnell & Associates announced it has been ranked among the Top lobbyists in New York State by City & State New York, an online and weekly magazine covering politics and policy in the Empire State.

Established by Managing Partner Jack O'Donnell in 2001, OD&A has offices in Buffalo, Albany, New York City, and Washington, D.C.

"O'Donnell & Associates is on the move," says Jack O'Donnell. "Our team continues to deliver solutions amid unprecedented challenges and constantly changing government rules and regulations."

OD&A represents Fortune 500 companies, non-profits, technology firms, labor unions, start-ups, and political candidates.

City and State New York recognized some of the firm's notable clients: New York State Building & Construction Trades Council, Delaware North, Motorola Solutions, and the University at Buffalo.

"We are proud to have helped our clients by keeping construction projects going safely, supporting our clients who support New York's most vulnerable and ultimately being a resource our clients can count on this year and beyond," says O'Donnell.

O'Donnell has more than 25 years of experience in government, government relations and politics throughout New York State, including stints in the U.S. Senate Office of Charles E. Schumer and the Office of the New York State Comptroller. He's a graduate of Canisius College ('96), St. Joseph Collegiate Institute, and received his Juris Doctor from the University at Buffalo.