

Are you feeling powerless when you hear of the impact of global warming on our planet?

“How do I make a difference on such a planet-wide problem?”

If you want to learn how to have an impact on global warming and be supported by others with a similar desire,

This program was developed by the Pachamama Alliance, (www.pachamama.org), a global community that offers people the chance to learn, connect, engage life for the purpose of creating a sustainable future that works for all. It draws heavily from the groundbreaking work of Project Drawdown (www.drawdown.org) which identified over 80 practical solutions to the challenge of global warming.
