

BIO

Deacon Gail Britt

Deacon Gail has served in the Rocky Mountain Synod, (SOV) for ten years. During the transition process at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran in Grand Junction, (2022-2025), she was called to serve as the Minister of Congregational Life and Administrator for the church. Deacon Gail also has a background in hospice chaplaincy and served as a Minister of Hope and Healing in Mesa County, CO., during the pandemic. Officially retiring in 2025, she and her husband, Bill remain active members at SOV. Deacon Gail is on the Council, and both regularly perform in their Praise Band. Their immediate family, Will, Robyn and their two beloved grandchildren, Ruby and Liam, also reside in Grand Junction.

Whenever you call or email the Synod office, Deacon Gail will be your first connection. She hopes to provide a warm reception, a helping hand, and the congenial hospitality of the Rocky Mountain Synod.
