My Community, My Self

Explore what community means to society and what it means to you. What happens when we suddenly feel like we don't belong in our spaces? We can find out who we are, and that will benefit us and create even better communities. We will discuss what community means to Muslims and some history and doctrine behind it. Tracy Smith is the Communications Director of the Islamic Center of Boulder. Tracy is a member of the Center's Social Justice Committee and is on the interfaith board at Boulder County AIDS Project. She also serves on the interfaith board at the Boulder Chapter of the NAACP. Tracy works at the Boulder Shelter for the Homeless.
