

Conversations for Connection

Thursday, Feb 11, 7-8:00 pm MT

What Can We Learn from the Wisdom of Women for These Times?

A protracted global pandemic. Suspended plans. Isolation. We didn't choose this. But in its midst, there are universal truths that help. How can we invite what wise women call "luscious solitude" rather than loneliness? What are practices and mindsets that help us find center? What do the collective voices of 6500 years of experience reveal as a recipe for resilience? Come hear and share.

Sue Brightman is a best-selling author and leadership coach, teacher, and retreat leader focusing on women over 50. Her mission is to strengthen and amplify women's voices in the world and the powerful role they play in 2021 and beyond. Her recently published best-seller reveals ten "declarations" she discovered from interviews with 100 women living a new stage of life. Sue brings her interfaith chaplain heart to this conversation.

Conversations for Connection

Thursday, Feb 11, 7-8:00 pm MT

What Can We Learn from the Wisdom of Women for These Times?

A protracted global pandemic. Suspended plans. Isolation. We didn't choose this. But in its midst, there are universal truths that help. How can we invite what wise women call "luscious solitude" rather than loneliness? What are practices and mindsets that help us find center? What do the collective voices of 6500 years of experience reveal as a recipe for resilience? Come hear and share.

Sue Brightman is a best-selling author and leadership coach, teacher, and retreat leader focusing on women over 50. Her mission is to strengthen and amplify women's voices in the world and the powerful role they play in 2021 and beyond. Her recently published best-seller reveals ten "declarations" she discovered from interviews with 100 women living a new stage of life. Sue brings her interfaith heart to this conversation.

