What the Widows Have Taught Me

Widows were honored by Jesus as revealers of great blessing. Their “grief glasses” have super powers, like gratitude, storytelling, seeing old things anew, crying in real time, befriending animals and finding humor in dark places. Join Rev Heather Haginduff in a pandemic discussion of how we can implement the widows’ gift in our daily mental health. Heather has been spending the pandemic learning how to garden, playing the ukulele and educating the public on advocating for Reproductive Health and Justice. She is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ and is energized by cooking and preaching on Zoom. She lives in Colorado Springs with her TickTokking, tween daughters, and her girl friend.
