Fall confirmation retreats

Coyote howl

Coyote Howl Confirmation Retreats create sacred space for confirmation students to build a foundation which will travel back with them to their home congregations. Coyote Howl retreats offer community. Alongside our dynamic, energetic and passionate staff, youth will explore the ways that God is at work in their communities along with how their connection to one another shapes their journeys of faith. This program is designed to support congregational confirmation curriculum with time for congregations built in throughout the weekend.

Coyote Howl weekends fall during the peak season of changing colors. This creates a unique setting for youth to experience their faith away from the distractions of daily life. Coyote Howl creates opportunities to recognize the gifts each person brings when we allow space for youth to be authentic and tell their stories.

This weekend is for you as well! We know what it takes to get campers signed up and safely up to camp. We are incredibly appreciative of your presence and want to make sure you are able to take something away from this weekend as well. Autumn at Sky Ranch is not only beautiful, but is a perfect time to rest and refresh yourself.

Things to do Around Camp

Hiking: We are located in Roosevelt National Forest. Ask one of our staff for more information.

Disc Golf: We have a 18-hole disc golf course that weaves through camp. Help yourself to one of our discs in the lodge.

Beaver Creek: We have a creek that cuts through camp down by Sondance. Enjoy sometime reading by the river on our conveniently located benches.
