

REFORMATION 2.0

Community
Conversation
Fellowship
Worship

October 1: Beer & Hymns

1:00-2:00pm - Vindication Brewing

6880 Winchester Circle, Boulder

Join us for local brews and Lutheran hymns to kick off our Reformation Month festivities, stick around to watch the Broncos!

October 9: Doctrine of Discovery and Beyond

5:30-7:30pm - Iliff School of Theology

2323 E Iliff Avenue, Denver

On what has traditionally been known as Columbus Day, join us for conversation around the Doctrine of Discovery, how it is still at work in our daily lives, and how we move toward a deeper repudiation of this dominant worldview

October 18: Together by Grace: A reading by Kathryn Kleinhans

6:30pm - Holy Shepherd Lutheran Church

920 Kipling Street, Lakewood

Together by Grace: Introducing the Lutherans tells the stories of Lutherans over the past 500 years. Edited by Wartburg College Professor Kathryn Kleinhans, this volume weaves together two dozen writers to take us on a journey through history leading us into the future.

October 25: Reformation Repast

6:00pm - St. John's Cathedral

1350 N Washington St, Denver

A time of food and fellowship led by Colorado Council of Churches Executive Director and James Beard Award-winning Author Adrian Miller. Bring a dish to share for this community potluck!

October 29: A Reformation Hymn Festival

4:00-6:00pm - Augustana Lutheran Church

5000 E Alameda Ave, Denver

Commemorating the 500th Anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation, join Augustana Lutheran and Bishop Gonia for worship and song.

Reformation month events are a collaboration between Colorado Council of Churches, Rocky Mountain Synod ELCA, Wartburg College, St. John's Cathedral, and Iliff School of Theology as part of the Rocky Mountain Synod's 500th Anniversary Commemoration.

RE•FORMATION
THEN • NOW • ALWAYS