

Conversations for Connection

Thursday, June 24, 7-8 pm (MT)

How Sacred Accompanying Can Strengthen Hope & Resilience

We can see ourselves in our texts. Rabbi Fred Greene will explore the Hebrew Bible and Rabbinic Sources for models of Sacred Accompanying -- how we can show up for ourselves and for others as God has shown up for us. Rabbi Greene is the rabbi at Congregational Har HaShem, Boulder, and is a community partner striving to make Congregational Har HaShem a dynamic, inclusive, inspiring Reform congregation. He aspires to provide a “brace space” for those looking to connect or reconnect to Judaism and Jewish community. Rabbi Greene's goal is to help make Jewish experiences meaningful and compelling, all the while helping reclaim faith, hope, and the prophetic, moral voice.
