Rocky Mountain Synodical President's Corner

It is the beginning of a new year! Along with making resolutions, some people get out the calendar for the year to mark dates for special occasions and make plans for vacation or travel. I hope you will make plans for the following:

What: Fall 2020 Rocky Mountain Synodical Women's Organization Convention and Retreat

When: September 18, 19, 20 (Friday afternoon through Sunday morning)

Where: Immanuel Lutheran Church – Greeley, Colorado

How: --to sign up? Registration form and lodging info will be in the April "Views from the Rockies"

Why: --should you attend? The business meeting will include election of officers and adoption of the budget. The retreat portion of the weekend will feature speakers, food, companionship with sisters in Christ and fun!

Life is busy and challenging. Women are challenged daily and busier than ever with jobs, volunteer activities, family commitments, caregiving and just keeping our heads above water! Decide NOW that you will do something for YOU! Decide now that you will join us for a weekend of Bible study, inspirational stories, singing, worship, mealtimes, snack times and coffee time.

Our theme is "From the Darkness into the Light." We all have experienced and/or are experiencing not only the dark times of life, but also the LIGHT of life. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to hear others' stories, share some of your own, and hear about how, IN CHRIST, "The LIGHT shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it."

We may not know what the new year will bring, but whatever it brings, God's presence will be with you!

Blessings and Peace!

Julie

Who can be voting members for Fall 2020 Convention/Retreat?

One person from a Congregational Unit can be a voting member for the business portion of the Convention and Retreat, but all women are welcome to attend.

Congregational Units

Women of all ages come together in these units for study, service, and fellowship.

What does it take to be a unit?

The Approved Model Constitution and Bylaws, Congregational, or Intercongregational Unit and the Approved Model Constitution and Bylaws, Special Unit provide the answers.

To accomplish the purpose of Women of the ELCA, women in this unit shall commit themselves to:

- a. come together for study, support and action;
- b. participate in the ministry of Women of the ELCA beyond the congregation;
- c. support financially the total program of Women of the ELCA; and
- d. designate leadership that shall be in communication with the synodical and churchwide women's organization. (Article II Section 2.)

The way that each unit lives out these commitments may vary, limited only by the imagination and resources of the women participating in the unit. As to commitment a., some units may meet monthly, others quarterly. Some units may consist of a handful of women; other units may have many women who meet in smaller groupings, organized around interests. Some units may spon-

Other Possibilities for In-Kind Gifts:

- Weld Food Bank (Non-perishable food or monetary donations),
- Migrant worker kits (toiletries – soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, washcloth, comb, etc.),
- School supplies for children of migrant workers (pencils, pens, markers, crayons, spiral notebooks, etc.)

Note: The RMSWO Board will decide which of these other possibilities will be offered at the Fall Convention.

sor a retreat while other units sponsor service projects.

Likewise, for commitment b., there are many ways to participate in the ministry of Women of the ELCA beyond the congregation. Some units will be active in cluster or conference events while others participate in synodical or regional events. Many units will attend events sponsored by the churchwide organization, including the triennial gathering. All are encouraged to subscribe to the organization's publications and use its resources. These, too, are ways of participating in the ministry of the organization beyond the congregation.

When it comes to "support financially the total program of Women of the ELCA," commitment c., questions often arise. Ideally, units would do several things. They would collect regular offerings and submit a portion of them to their synodical organization (which, in turn, submits a portion of those regular offerings to the churchwide organization). Units would hold one or more Thankoffering services each year and transmit to the churchwide organization 100 percent of the Thankofferings collected. Units would also participate in special offerings and designated gifts, as appropriate.

The last commitment is an easy one. Units simply need to designate a participant who will be in communication with the synodical and churchwide organizations. Depending upon how the unit organizes its life together, it will usually be the president or chair of the unit who fills this role.

Celebrate Bold Women's Day: February 23, 2020

Women of the ELCA's mission is mobilizing women to act boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ. We know that each woman will act boldly in a way that's unique to her, so we talk about each of us "finding our bold." Bold Women's Day—observed annually on the fourth Sunday of February—celebrates all Lutheran women who have acted or are acting boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ. Some women are bold in their unceasing prayers. Other women are bold in their service to those in need. Still other women are bold in their advocacy or through their hospitality. Whether we live out our bold story of faith in the workplace, family home or community, our faith compels us to make a difference in the lives of others. It's all about living out our baptismal call, about being a disciple of Christ.

Do you know a bold woman? Who is she and why do you think she is a bold woman? On February 23rd, consider giving an offering to the Women of the ELCA in honor of these bold women in your life. (Resources on welca.org/bwd)

RACHEL'S DAY: Women boldly standing for Children

What is Rachel's Day? In 1994, one woman urged her congregation Bethel Lutheran Church on the west side of Chicago, to support children facing violence. They began by clearing a vacant lot and turning it into a garden—Rachel's Garden. It became a place where folks—mostly mothers—could come to mourn children killed by gun violence in the past year. They also planted a white cross and flowers in remembrance of these young ones. Two years later, the Metro Chicago Synodical Women's Organization brought a memorial to the Third Triennial Convention (1996) of Women of the ELCA to broaden awareness of the violence children face and actions to address it. The convention passed the memorial, resolving, "That ELCA women encourage their congregations to recognize the first Sunday in May each year as Rachel's Day, based on Jeremiah 31:15-17 wherein Rachel grieved for her children, to mourn the loss of our children and to renounce the forces of evil and fear that plague our nation."

Remember, Rachel's Day is to serve as a beginning, a place and time to move participants to action. (Resources on welca.org/resources)

Rocky Mountain Synod Assembly... ...coming to a town near you!

May 1st and 2nd are the dates for the 2020 Rocky Mountain Synod Assembly. This year, instead of everyone meeting in ONE location, the Synod is trying out an idea of five (5) geographic locations with portions of the Assembly shared with all by video conferencing technology.

Usually, the Rocky Mountain Synodical Women's Organization (RMSWO) has been an exhibitor at the Synod Assembly. With five locations this year, we wondered how to accomplish this. The good news is that we will be able to have a table as an exhibitor at each of the five sites if we so choose. The other good news is that many of our RMSWO Board members live near one of the sites.

However, we would LOVE to have some help from other Women of the ELCA to staff these tables!

The churches and their locations are:

Ascension St. Matthew's—Price, Utah

Ascension—Cheyenne, Wyoming

Cross of Christ—Broomfield, Colorado

Trinity—Monument, Colorado

Cross of Hope—Albuquerque, New Mexico

If you live near one of these churches and would like to assist at the RMSWO table on Saturday, May 2nd, please contact RMSWO President, Julie Elmquist, who will then put you in touch with the corresponding board member. (Cell phone: 970.371.2734 or email at: sjelmquist@msn.com)

RMSWO Convention Elections

This year at the convention in Greeley we will be electing new officers and board members. If you are interested in becoming part of a great group of women who laugh together, have fun together and really get down to business, this is the board for you. We are primarily looking for a vice president and treasurer and board members, but if you wish to run for president or secretary indicate it on the form. A Board Nomination Form is included in the Views.

Duties of the vice president: The vice president acts and presides in the absence of the president.

The vice president also performs duties as requested by the president. The vice president is in charge of the re-elections every two years at the synodical women's organization.

Duties of the treasurer: The treasurer keeps all financial records, is accountable for all funds and disburses funds. The treasurer presents reports to churchwide, to the board and at the synodical women's organization convention. The treasurer, with the board, prepares annual budgets.

Update:

“Umbrella Ministry” and the “Pool of Living Water” donations.

At our RMSWO convention in 2014, the voting members in attendance voted to approve changing the name of the Umbrella Ministry and the Pool of Living Water to "Women's Justice-an on-going ministry". These are the funds donated with dimes, and sometimes nickels, that are collected. The money collected will go to women and children in need. Who it goes to is determined by one cluster at each convention, the next one this coming fall. We currently have 10 clusters. This is not a huge fund, but currently has about $100 in it. We will determine the cluster that decides during the fall convention. Get your group discussing who you would like this donation sent to in case your cluster is chosen to make the decision. It can be given to a local, national or world wide organization that your cluster wants to help.

On sleepless nights by Daily Grace

Can't sleep? Bundle up, go outside, and look into the night sky. Gaze at the stars shining down on you. Look at the moon. Even if the lights of the night sky are hidden behind clouds, you know they are there. They have been above you and your family since the day your lives began. So has God. Take comfort from knowing this, and get some sleep. (January 16, 2020, Adapted from "Finding Peace" written by Kay L. Stewart)

Dear Jan,

On behalf of the Storehouse family, thank you for your recent gift of $760.00 contributed at the St. Paul's gathering on September 21, 2019.

Every dollar donated to the Storehouse provides five meals; therefore, your gift of $760.00 provides 3,800 meals. You should also be aware that $.95 of every dollar donated directly supports the work of the Storehouse.

For over 43 years, the Storehouse has been providing millions of meals annually to hungry children, families, and working individuals. Many of these individuals do not make enough to make ends meet. We value your support in helping to provide our clients with a promise of a brighter future.

Thank you so much for your philanthropy!

Sincerely,

Bye to Ginny

At the January 11, 2020 Board meeting of the RMSWO, we accepted, with regret, the resignation of Ginny Hallagin as a board member. Ginny's resignation was due to health concerns, and we on the board ask all of you for prayers for Ginny and her family. We hope, someday, to welcome Ginny back to the board, where she has been such a positive influence.

Unit Treasurers:

Would you be interested in online training?

As a congregational unit treasurer, would you be interested in an online video training session customized for your needs? It would take only a little more than half an hour. If so, please email Audrey Riley, audrey.riley@elca.org, and leave a note to say so. If there is enough interest, we'll put one together this spring. Read how online video training for the treasurers of synodical women's organizations is a big hit. Please download the "Guide for Unit Treasurers" and copies of Form

A and Form B from our website! They're available for free at welca.org/toolsforleaders (scroll down a bit). Note: Both Form A & B are part of this issue of the Views. The RMSWO treasurer is Jan Young at ajyoung@sisna.com and her mailing address is: 1567 Eastwood Dr, Price, Utah 84501. She is happy to answer any questions you might have as a treasurer.

SWO TREASURER'S QUICK GUIDE

Beginning of Term

- You will take office on February 1 after the convention when you were elected.
- Meet with the outgoing treasurer to pass on the files, equipment, and information you'll need, including a copy of the SWO's constitution, list of active units and their contacts, and the SWO's EIN or TIN. Spend plenty of time talking about your SWO's particular policies, procedures, and practices.
- Go to irs.gov and download form 8822-B, the change of address form. Use your home address on the form and send it back.
- Add your name to the SWO's existing bank account and make your home address the primary mailing address on the account. Banking regulations are different from state to state, so follow the banker's advice. Your president should also be a signer on the account. Have all bank information mailed to your home address.
- Order checks that show your mailing address, deposit slips, and a deposit stamp. Depending on the activity of your synodical organization, you may not write many checks, so ask the previous treasurer how many she wrote to get an idea of how many to order.
- Contact the churchwide women's organization to confirm that your title and contact information are accurate. Contact Eva James Yeo at 1-800-638-3522, ext. 2450 or eva.yeo@elca.org.
- It is recommended that you use a computer for your bookkeeping. Some synodical organizations purchase a laptop for the sole use of the treasurer. Other equipment the SWO should purchase for you and your successors include a flash drive (thumb drive, jump drive) exclusively for the SWO's use; a locking file cabinet or drawer for SWO records and equipment; a small paper shredder.
- Some SWOs have a generic email address for the treasurer's use. A fictitious example might be: homeSWOtreasurer@gmail.com.
- Ask your SWO president and secretary for an up-to-date list of active units. You will use this to contact the unit treasurers.
- Purchase stamps, envelopes, and mailing labels. Print out mailing labels with your name, title, and mailing address on them.
- Contact the unit treasurers by mail or email. Introduce yourself and let them know where to send their Regular Offerings (to you). It is very helpful to enclose a few copies of Form A and Form B with your introductory letter, along with a reminder of where to send which types of offerings. Mailing labels might be very well received. You might also include a copy of the Guide for Unit Treasurers, which may be downloaded at welca.org/tools-for-leaders (scroll down). Encourage them to send in their Regular Offerings to you monthly, or, at a minimum, quarterly.

Persistent women by Daily Grace

When God created women, God put something in us that was exhibiting itself within that parable of the widow and the unjust judge—persistence. In the parable, maybe Jesus was saying, “Go deeper within yourself. God has given you a double portion of determination, a double portion of resilience, a double portion of perseverance. You can do anything that you put your heart to do.”

If all of us will just reach down and realize that double portion within ourselves, we'll do wonders, and we'll not be seen as weak. We'll be seen as the most powerful people in the world.

This message is adapted from “Persistence and Peace” written by Leymah Gbowee.

Eleventh Triennial Gathering 2020

How To Sign Up For The RMS e-Connection by e-mail

By Susan Mitchell

We encourage every woman in the Rocky Mountain Synod to sign up to receive the weekly Synod Newsletter called e-Connection. It is sent out every Wednesday to your e-mail address, and it contains articles and pictures about many things in our lives together as Lutherans living in the states that make up the Rocky Mountain Synod.

Once a quarter, e-Connection will have an article about the current issue of our “Views from the Rockies”—the newsletter of the RMS Women’s Organization. You will be directed to the Synod website, which is where “Views” issues will be available. You may read them online, and you may also print a copy for your personal use. Ask your church office to print the Views for you if you do not have access to the website.

Please sign up as follows:

1) On your computer, go to the Rocky Mountain

Synod website by putting this URL into your browser: www.rmselca.org/faithformation/RockyMountainSynodicalWyomensOrganization.

2) On the home page, scroll down to the bottom, and in the middle of the page you will see: Subscribe to e-mail Newsletter. Below that line is a yellow rectangle that says e-mail List. Simply click on the yellow rectangle! This takes you to a page that asks for your e-mail Address, your first & last name, and to check a box stating if you are a Pastor, Associate in Ministry, Diaconal Minister, or Deaconess. Below this you should check the box that states: “I wish to receive e-Connection each week.”

3) Finally, click on the bottom bar that says “Sign Up.” That’s it! Remember, this is a free subscription to the synod e-mail weekly newsletter. You will receive notice of new issues of our Views from the Rockies newsletters from the synod’s e-Connection e-mail.

About Views from the Rockies

The “Views” is written/circulated by the Rocky Mountain Synodical Women’s Organization, Women of the ELCA, and provides information about programs and projects.

NOTE: Articles for the Views are to be sent to anna498.at@gmail.com by the 12th of January, 12th of April, 12th of July, 12th of August and 12th of November.

There are no longer printed copies of “Views from the Rockies.” Each church and all individuals may now download and/or print FREE COPIES from the Rocky Mountain Synod website. To access the website and get the newsletter, go to www.rmselca.org/faithformation/RockyMountainSynodicalWyomensOrganization.

If you would like to receive the Views newsletter in your personal e-mail, please send an e-mail to anna498.at@gmail.com with the subject line “Add me.” You will be added to the e-mail list and receive all future newsletters and e-mail blasts from the RMSWO Board. Your e-mail address will not be shared with any other organization.

The website of the Rocky Mountain Synodical Women’s Organization has not only this newsletter but more information about what is going on now, what has happened in the past, and what to look to in the future. Erin Powers at the synod office has kindly kept the site updated. We will keep new, interesting information highlighted on the web.
