

Save Green, Be Green:
How to Save Money and Shrink the Environmental Impact of Your Organization
September 25, 2018
Central Presbyterian Church

Time	Activity	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop
8:45-9:15	Check in; coffee
9:15-9:30	Welcome
9:30-9:45	Break
9:45-10:45	Session 1	BE GREEN: Eco-friendly Waste Disposal for Facilities E-waste recycling : Alejandro Dopico, Operations Manager, PCs for People Responsible Recycling/Disposal/Food Recovery : Virginia Till, Recycling Specialist/Sustainable Management of Food Lead, EPA Region 8	SAVE GREEN: Prioritizing building upgrades and how to pay for them Smart Repairs and Upgrades (save the most with the least investment): Michael Alosi, High Performance Operations & Sustainability Specialist, General Services Administration Funding energy efficiency : Peter Rusin, Principal, Faith Energy Investors	BE GREEN: Equity and Sustainability Sustainability and equity at the community level - barriers to sustainability for the low-income community: Jenna Harmon, Utility Programs Assistant, Energy Outreach Colorado	BE GREEN: Making Sustainability Part of Your Organizational Culture Achieving sustainability goals and finding opportunities to conserve resources : Jeremy Lauffenberger, Sustainability Advisor, Certifiably Green Denver
10:45-11:00	Break
11:00-Noon	Session 2	BE GREEN: Eco-friendly Waste Disposal for Facilities E-waste recycling : Alejandro Dopico, Operations Manager, PCs for People Responsible Recycling/Disposal/Food Recovery : Virginia Till, Recycling Specialist/Sustainable Management of Food Lead, EPA Region 8	SAVE GREEN: Prioritizing building upgrades and how to pay for them Smart Repairs and Upgrades (save the most with the least investment): Michael Alosi, High Performance Operations & Sustainability Specialist, General Services Administration Funding energy efficiency : Peter Rusin, Principal, Faith Energy Investors	BE GREEN: Equity and Sustainability Sustainability and equity at the community level - barriers to sustainability for the low-income community: Jenna Harmon, Utility Programs Assistant, Energy Outreach Colorado	BE GREEN: Making Sustainability Part of Your Organizational Culture Achieving sustainability goals and finding opportunities to conserve resources : Jeremy Lauffenberger, Sustainability Advisor, Certifiably Green Denver
Noon-12:45	Lunch	NEEP & Energy Action overview; browse presenter tables
12:45-1:00	Break
1:00-2:00	Session 3	SAVE GREEN and BE GREEN: Denver City Compliance and Benchmarking Lay of the Land- What City of Denver Initiatives and Programs Apply to You? Sonrisa Lucero, Sustainability Strategist, Denver Office of Sustainability Do you need a permit? Demystifying zoning and building permits : Laura Swartz, Communications Strategist, Denver Community Planning and Development	BE GREEN and SAVE GREEN: Solar for Nonprofits Rooftop, community gardens, financing - Jenna Harmon, Utility Programs Assistant, Energy Outreach Colorado and Julia Sullivan from Atmosphere Conservancy	SAVE GREEN and BE GREEN: Sustainable Facility Planning Implement an Environmental Management System : Bill Morris, Co-Founder & CEO, Blue Star Recyclers WHY and HOW of creating a preventative maintenance plan : Don Wood, Chair Buildings and Grounds Committee, St. John's Episcopal Cathedral and former Denver International Airport Capital-Improvement Program Manager	BE GREEN and SAVE GREEN: Healthy Buildings How Healthy is Your Building – Assessing Indoor Air Contaminants : Melissa Payan, EPA Region 8 Indoor Air Quality Specialist and Althea Godfrey, Indoor Air Quality Assistant, EPA Region 8
2:00-2:15	Break

2:15-3:15	Session 4	SAVE GREEN and BE GREEN: Denver City Compliance and Benchmarking Lay of the Land- What City of Denver Initiatives and Programs Apply to You? Sonrisa Lucero, Sustainability Strategist, Denver Office of Sustainability Do you need a permit? Demystifying zoning and building permits: Laura Swartz, Communications Strategist, Denver Community Planning and Development	BE GREEN and SAVE GREEN: Solar for Nonprofits Rooftop, community gardens, financing - Jenna Harmon, Utility Programs Assistant, Energy Outreach Colorado and Julia Sullivan from Atmosphere Conservancy	SAVE GREEN and BE GREEN: Sustainable Facility Planning Implement an Environmental Management System: Bill Morris, Co-Founder & CEO, Blue Star Recyclers WHY and HOW of creating a preventative maintenance plan: Don Wood, Chair Buildings and Grounds Committee, St. John's Episcopal Cathedral and former Denver International Airport Capital-Improvement Program Manager	BE GREEN and SAVE GREEN: Healthy Buildings How Healthy is Your Building – Assessing Indoor Air Contaminants: Melissa Payan, EPA Region 8 Indoor Air Quality Specialist and Althea Godfrey, Indoor Air Quality Assistant, EPA Region 8
3:15-3:30	Break
3:30-4:00	Q&A; Action Plan Using what you've learned to create an Action Plan for your organization - Meg Griffin Donaldson, Behavior Change Program Manager, Energy Outreach Colorado
4:00-4:30	Networking; browse presenter tables				