

St. Paul Lutheran Church to Hold Final Worship Service — December 28 at 4 PM

St. Paul Lutheran Church in Denver will host a closing worship service on Sunday, December 28 at 4 PM, marking a time of thanksgiving, prayer, and reflection as the congregation concludes its ministry at this historic location. The church has long been a place of open, affirming ministry in downtown Denver, known for its inclusive worship and service to the wider community. We are grateful for their ministry and what God has and will continue to accomplish through the members of this community.

All are welcome to gather for this special service to give thanks for the years of faithful service, community, and worship shared together. After the service, there will be an opportunity to greet neighbors and share memories.
