Request for residency and fellowship programs

Residency and fellowship programs can request Inclusive Excellence training session for their residents/fellows. These training sessions provide a broad foundation that can be applied across specialty programs.

Topic requests may include a wide range of subjects such as implicit bias, microaggressions, inclusive communication, structural racism in healthcare, cultural humility, and allyship, but are not limited to these areas.

Each session fosters reflection, open dialogue, and provides practical strategies to promote equity and inclusion within clinical learning environments.
