

Sugar Museum Donates Films for Preservation

The Sugar Museum donated its collection of sugar industry films to the West Oahu campus of University of Hawaii Manoa's film vaults at the 'Ulu'ulu Henry Ku'ualoha Giugni Moving Image Archives of Hawaii. This organization aims to perpetuate and share the rich moving image heritage of Hawaii through the preservation of film and videotape related to the history and culture of Native Hawaiians and the people of Hawaii. Janel Quirante, Head Archivist, came to Maui and packed up our films for us. They will be cataloged, digitized and safely stored. The Museum will, in turn, receive digital copies of the collection to use for exhibits, research, and publications.
