Leila Percy and Friends

celebrate songs from the Great American Songbook. Leila's mentors in swing era music include pianist Muriel Havenstein, trombonist Don Doane, and bassist Al Doane. She finds joy in a variety of musical genres from Broadway show music to country and folk to jazz in addition to the Great American Songbook. The 1st jazz singer elected to the Maine House of Representatives, she occasionally filled in to sing the National Anthem.

The choral director and piano instructor at Maine Central Institute in Pittsfield for 13 years, Gerry Wright has been the pianist for many years with the Al Corey Band and his Gerry Wright Trio. He has performed at world fairs and with celebrities including Elvis Presley, Phyllis Diller, the Lennon Sisters and Dizzy Gillespie.

As an American Sign Language interpreter, Sherry Walrath has signed concerts with Leila from Farmington to the Rockpost Opera House.
