

PRESS RELEASE

August 1, 2021

Springwood School recognized with the 2021 President's and Blue Ribbon awards from the Alabama Independent School Association (AISA) for its outstanding educational programs and academic excellence.

Springwood School has the prestigious honor of winning the 2021 President's Award. Springwood School is the only school in over a decade to receive the AISA President's Award for three consecutive years. This is the 6th time since 2015 the school has received the recognition. The award acknowledges Springwood School's excellence in the areas of student and teacher performance, facilities, student life and community involvement.

Springwood School was also named an AISA Blue Ribbon School for the 10th consecutive year. The AISA Blue Ribbon Award program recognizes outstanding educational programs. In order to be considered for the Blue Ribbon Award, a school must complete a rigorous application process and exemplify excellence in scholastic achievement, professional learning, student involvement and community interaction.

About the AISA:

The AISA has been steadfast in its efforts since 1970 to maintain an organization of independently operated non-public schools that are rich in diversity, committed to academic excellence, and deeply concerned about the growth and development of students. The association's goal is to provide quality educational services and programs that ultimately serve to enrich the educational experiences of the students within its member schools.