Procacci Brothers Sales Corporation, Ag-Mart Produce Inc. and Camden Catholic High School are proud to offer the “Estrella Naciente” scholarship, available to Latino students at Camden Catholic.

Latino students that are freshmen during the 2017-2018 school year are eligible to apply for the scholarship. The two recipients of the scholarship will be selected based on demonstrated academic achievement, financial need, and community involvement. The scholarship will take effect during the 2019-2020 school year and will be renewable for the students’ junior and senior years, based on attainment of a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or greater and fulfillment of community involvement obligations during their sophomore and junior school years.

To apply for the scholarship, students must complete the following actions:

1. Complete the “Applicant Personal Information” document
2. Complete an essay that answers the question, “Why is sustainable agriculture important for the future of the United States?”
 - a. Essay must be typed and double-spaced, with student name at the top of the page
 - b. Maximum length is 250 words
3. Submit a copy of any final grades for the 2017-2018.

Completed applications should be returned to the Camden Catholic High School Advancement Office (Room 224A) no later than February 2, 2018.
