

The Black Mount Youth Initiative is a collaborative effort by St. James Episcopal and Black Mountain Presbyterian churches to support the spiritual development of youth in Black Mountain and the Swannanoa Valley. We affirm and celebrate LGBTQI+ youth.

CONVERSATIONS THAT MATTER SERIES

THE THIRD TALK: CONVERSATIONS ABOUT ONLINE PORNOGRAPHY

with John Van Arnam, The Third Talk® Founder, SME

Thursday, May 16

6:00 pm - 7:30 pm at St. James Episcopal Church
424 W. State Street, Black Mountain, NC 28711

There is a clear connection between early pornography exposure and depression, aggression, loneliness, sexting, grooming by adults, assault, partner violence, and human sex trafficking.

The Third Talk® provides parents with the language necessary to initiate a pornography prevention conversation with their children.

This event is intended for parents/caregivers and youth in grades 5-12

John Van Arnam, SME

Syracuse University Graduate - Degree in Psychology, Partner in the Buncombe County Prevention Task Force, Stakeholder on the North Carolina Human Trafficking Commission, Former program trainer for the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction and the North Carolina Center for Safer Schools

ST. JAMES EPISCOPAL CHURCH
A CENTER FOR SPIRITUAL EDUCATION, PRACTICE & CONNECTION

BLACK MOUNTAIN
Presbyterian Church