

ELISABETH VON TRAPP - 2024-2025 EPISCOPAL CONCERT TOUR

ELISABETH VON TRAPP TO PERFORM AT YOUR CHURCH

Elisabeth is the granddaughter of Maria and Baron von Trapp, whose story inspired The Sound of Music. She is also an Episcopalian, a member of Christ Episcopal Church of Montpelier, Vermont. Elisabeth has enthralled audiences from European cathedrals to Washington D.C.'s National Cathedral, the Kennedy Center and hundreds of performance halls and churches across the United States as well as a featured musician at two Episcopal General Conventions.

THERE IS NO FEE FOR THESE CONCERTS

Elisabeth's compensation for these performances will be in the form of a donation. The offering plate will be passed during the performance and the audience will be asked to make a donation.

10 % of the collection plate and CD sales will go to the Host Church

ELISABETH'S CONCERT PROGRAM

Elisabeth's concert program includes sacred and secular music ranging from Gregorian chant, early American hymns, spirituals and always a song or two from the Rodgers & Hammerstein songbook. All arrangements are created for the church setting, arranged around Elisabeth's voice and guitar accompaniment.

CHOIR PARTICIPATION

Elisabeth invites choirs from the host church to take part and join in closing out the concert. Their participation never fails to enhance the event and almost guarantees a full house.
