

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Mt Soul will be hosting Amythyst Kiah on Sunday, July 21st at 6:00 pm!

With an unforgettable voice that's both unfettered and exquisitely controlled, the Tennessee-bred singer/songwriter expands on the uncompromising artistry she most recently revealed as part of Our Native Daughters— an all-women-of-color supergroup whose Kiah-penned standout “Black Myself” earned a Grammy Award nomination for Best American Roots Song and won Song of the Year at the 2019 Folk Alliance International Awards.

And then later in the year,

Mt Soul presents...The Lone Canary on Sunday, September 8th at 6:00 pm!

Anchored in the rich loam of Folk/Americana music, The Lone Canary embodies the harmonious talents of Heather Camacho and Jesse Fox. Camacho graces the stage with her rich vocals, dynamic fiddle, and rhythmic percussion, complemented by Fox's gruff voice and acoustic guitar resonances.

Based in Rockford, IL, The Lone Canary is a long-standing musical alliance between Fox and Camacho, dating back to their high school years. Their collective journey resonates musically, delivering an authentic sound that is equal parts haunting and captivating.

Mt Soul is a music ministry provided by Christ Church.

Christ Episcopal Church is located at 2543 US HWY 21 South in Sparta, NC, at the corner of HWY 21S and Chestnut Grove Church Road. All Mt Soul events are free to the community! We do accept donations that go directly towards the next Mt Soul event.
