Carla Stanton Guest Speaker

Carla Stanton is a certified spiritual director. She completed her training at the Franciscan Spirituality Center in La Crosse WI. Her practice includes seeing people for 1:1 spiritual direction, group direction and retreat ministries. Besides listening for the work of the Holy in people's lives, her passions include, spending time outdoors, traveling, leading parenting groups and hanging out with her family! She lives with her husband of 21 years and their 3 children in Onalaska, WI.

RETREAT THEME

Our world is filled with so many different "voices" and pressures fighting for our attention so we can follow them. How do we find the voice of God amidst all the noise? Our speaker, Carla Stanton, will help us start to answer that question. Come for a time to connect to God through listening, conversation, relaxation, creativity, and fun.

LODGING INFO & PRICING

You'll be staying in Sugar Creek's Koinonia Lodge, which includes 7 rooms (with 3 twin-sized bunk beds) each with their own bathroom and shower. This is a perfect time to get a group of friends together for a fun weekend at camp. Cost: $125 includes delicious meals, programming, lodging, and more.
 **Please bring your own bed and shower linens!

So many voices...
So many messages...
Who do we listen to?

How do we listen to God?
