

Children & Youth Shine at Sugar Creek Bible Camp

You discover your strength

According to the American Camp Association (ACA), 92% of campers say camp helped them feel better about themselves as compared to a typical week at school. At Sugar Creek, campers build confidence and discover their resilience through new experiences.

You build unbreakable friendships

According to the ACA, 96% of campers make new friends, with the average camper making 7 new friendships! Sugar Creek prioritizes small group ministry to foster deep, meaningful relationships.

You grow bold and brave

70% of parents report their camper discovers NEW passions, skills, and interests at camp. The ACA also found that 61% of campers feel more confident standing up for what they believe in. Sugar Creek provides opportunities for campers to explore skills and activities they might not try anywhere else.

You explore the wonders of nature

Research from the ACA and other studies shows that nature-based play and exploration can significantly reduce anxiety and depression in youth. At Sugar Creek, campers have the freedom to explore the outdoors while also receiving valuable social skills instruction and safe, real-life practice.

You deepen your faith

According to Sacred Playgrounds, camp provides campers the space to develop a faith that is truly their own. 83% report stronger faith months after camp! At Sugar Creek, campers engage in meaningful practices. Every activity is designed to nurture their faith.
