Wisdom of the Ages 11:00 a.m. — 1:00 p.m. Open to: Ages 55+ Tentative - To Be Announced	Women's Bible Class 9:00 — 10:00 a.m. Starts January 12 Open to: Adult women "The Book of Colossians"		Men's Bible Breakfast 7:45 — 9:00 a.m. Open to: Adult men "My Brother's Keeper" This Bible study examines how to reach out to church members who are straying from God, from His Word and from worship. Because every Christian is tempted to fall away from God, churches sometimes face losing a straying brother or sister in Christ. This Bible study is intended to assist church elders and members of congregations in fostering love and concern for fellow members, especially those who are drifting away. Dates: January 14 February 11 March 11 April 15 May 13
Youth Bible Class 8:15 — 9:15 a.m. Open to: Grades 7-10 "1 Peter: We Have a Living Hope!" Seventeen lessons cover the book of I Peter. Some of the lessons include "Joy in Trials," "Like Jesus When Facing Injustice," "Witness in Marriage," "Doing What Is Right," and "In View of the End."			Adult Bible Class 7:00 — 8:00 p.m. Starts January 11 Open to: Adults "What's in this new hymnal, anyway?" One year into adopting Christian Worship 21 , take a deep-dive into its contents. Explore the services, rites, prayers, hymns, and other resources within the hymnal and its companion books. Come ready to learn, sing, and ask your burning questions! Hymnals will be provided, but bringing your own is encouraged.
Adult Bible Class 8:15 — 9:15 a.m. Open to: Adults "Matthew: Follow Me" The second of a two-part study of the book of Matthew covers chapters 14-28, presenting the account of Jesus' life. The Lord said, "Follow Me" showing how he called and trained his disciples (and us) to proclaim his death and resurrection to the world.
