- We would like to return to church as often as we are able.
- I would be happy to attend.
- September seems too soon.
- I'd like to see the trajectory of AZ Covid before committing. Late Sept. may be bad.
- I've been good about avoiding crowds so I'm not comfortable about this just yet.
- It will depend on the numbers. I miss in-person worship but not enough to take chances with it.
- I think we should wait and see what happens with the infection rate in the schools. You did such an amazing job with the zoom experience I do not feel the need to rush toward in person gatherings. I saw, spoke with, and got to know more people in the congregation than I have during my time of attendance in person. And the interviews were wonderful. Thank you so much for all of that! And hats off to Forrest and all who helped keep us together.

2. If I attend, my preference for day and time would be:

Sunday morning at 9 a.m.	31	48.4%
Sunday morning at 11 a.m.	18	28.1%
Thursday evening at 7 p.m.	7	10.9%
No Responses	4	6.2%

Selected Comments:

- Celebrations? Yes
- A song would be fun, too.
- I like the idea of having a welcome and potentially an introduction to a small topic that would be up for discussion where we could break into even smaller groups of two-three people depending on the size of the greeting (10-12) people max.
- Music without singing? That would be difficult for me.
- Visiting will not have much meaning with so few people present.
- Offering!
- Discussion at separate tables would be difficult, many people have hearing problems in Smith Hall.
- Waiting for a vaccine, before I attend services I am pleased with online worship
- No sharing of food for coffee chat, please. Bring own cracker and water bottle for communion.
