

The Pain and Effects of Trauma— Fear-Based Theology

- Hell is used as a fear tactic to keep you in church/Christian. Exploring other hell theology means you're denying God
- Agree with what we believe or you can find another church
- Doctrine is pushed over love
- Your salvation can be lost and is dependent on your strict obedience

Healing and Restoration of Trauma— Fear-Based Theology

- Exploring the concept of universalism, that is, there is no hell. Affirming the love of God.
- No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.
- Humility and love are the first words and last words in our relationships with each other and the world.
- It is not about the God you hold on to. It is about the God that holds on to you.

Word About Life

I John 4: 16-21

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world.

There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us.

Those who say, 'I love God', and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.
