All the words you will need are in this bulletin: Text that the people say is prefaced with "People" or "All" and is in a bold font. All song lyrics are also in this bulletin.

Wi-Fi access: Look for our networks beginning with CBCI-77B0 and enter password build7443guitar; we encourage you to share pictures and posts on social media.

Worship/Liturgy Sources: Our worship is based on the Book of Common Prayer (BCP--the red hardcover book in the pew rack), the Book of Occasional Services, the Enriching Our Worship series—the primary liturgical resources authorized by General Convention of The Episcopal Church—supplemented by occasional other resources. You may find additional prayers in the BCP on pages 832-834 helpful for personal devotion before, during, and after worship (especially prayers 64-69 and 57-61). If you'd like a BCP for your own use at home, the church can provide one for you—please talk to Amma Diane.

Children: Children of all ages are welcome in worship! Activity bags are available in the back of the church. A changing station is available in the restroom in the atrium just outside the sanctuary.

Hearing Loop: Our Hearing Loop system enables people with hearing loss to better hear sounds through our sound system. If you can set your hearing aid to a T or M/T setting, audio from our sound system will be received directly by your device (70% of aids have this feature). If your aid does not have this option, or you do not wear a hearing aid, there are a few portable headsets available in the back of the church.

Please share your prayer requests with us: All are invited to share their prayer requests so that the entire congregation may join in lifting up your needs and thanksgivings. Please add requests to the Prayers of the People clipboard (you can simply use first names on requests... God knows our needs). If you'd like a prayer lifted up for multiple weeks, please fill out a prayer request slip found at the back of the church.

We worship with our bodies: You'll notice that some of us may sit, stand, and kneel at various points in the service. Some of us may make the sign of the cross or bow now and then. Some may clap, raise their hands, or tap their feet. All of these movements are traditions from various parts of our Christian heritage—none are required, none are frowned upon. All are welcome to express whatever movements they might find meaningful in worship. Some instructions are printed throughout this bulletin—you may also observe what others do. None of these movements are a requirement: if you prefer not to use them, don't worry about it—God doesn't.

Restrooms/Layout/Accessibility: A handicapped-accessible restroom is located in the atrium just outside the sanctuary (next to the elevator.) Another restroom is located on the lower level. The atrium gives access to the lower level and upper level by stairs or elevator. The worship space and chapel are located on the upper level. The offices, fellowship hall, library, and classrooms are located on the lower level and marked by signs.

Welcome!

A Time of Remembrance & Honoring Veterans & Military

adapted from prayers by The Rev Gord Waldie, Pastor Thomas J Flander Jr, Alden Solovy, & The Book of Common Prayer

Celebrant God of peace and love, on this weekend we once again take time to remember. We remember that in Jesus of Nazareth you have called us to be people of peace saying, "Blessed are the peacemakers", and reminding us that we are to love our neighbor and enemy as we love ourselves. But we also acknowledge that there are times we as a global community fail to live out those words; time when young men and women hear the call to don the uniforms of their country and serve under their flag.

Today we give thanks for all who have chosen to serve their country. We give thanks for their bravery, their commitment, and their love. But we know that when military forces meet, there are always some who don't come home. So first, we take time to remember those who did not return to the loved ones they left behind.

Let us share in remembrance and thanksgiving.

People We remember the fallen, and the sacrifice they made for the sake of others. We thank God for brave men and women that have given their lives so that we may worship without fear.

Celebrant I invite you to remember now silently or aloud, the names of any who died while in service to their country.

Names may be said aloud or remembered silently.

Celebrant Let us share in a moment of silence for those who died in service.

All join in silent reflection as we remember the fallen.

Celebrant God of every nation, as we remember those that gave their lives, let us be stirred to action in their memory. Strengthen us to promote peace and justice in our world and remind us to love even our enemies as ourselves. Empower us to work for your kingdom in this world and welcome us by your grace into your kingdom in the next.

People AMEN!

Celebrant At this time I invite all who have served or are currently serving their country in military service to come stand in front near the lectern.

All veterans and those currently serving are invited to move to the front of the church.

Celebrant Please share your name, branch, and years of service.

Amma Diane passes a microphone

Celebrant Let us join in prayer for all veterans.

People God of compassion, dignity, and strength, watch over the veterans of the United States in recognition of their loyal service to our nation. Bless them with wholeness and love, shelter them, heal their wounds, comfort their hearts, and grant them peace. God of justice and truth, bless our veterans, these men and women of courage and valor, with a deep and abiding understanding of our profound gratitude. Protect them and their families from loneliness and want. Grant them lives of joy and bounty. May their dedication and honor be remembered as a blessing from generation to generation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN!

Celebrant Let us pray for all who are currently serving.

People Almighty God, we commend to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces at home and abroad. Defend them day by day with your heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; give them courage to face the perils which beset them; and grant them a sense of your abiding presence wherever they may be; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN!

The Celebrant individually blesses any veterans and any currently serving, then offers the following general blessing for those who are not present.

Celebrant To all veterans, all serving, and all who have died: I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People AMEN!

Celebrant And finally, let us join in prayer for our enemies, that we may remember we are all created as God's children in a broken world that we as Christians are called to help to make whole.

People O God, Creator of all, whose Christ commanded us to love our enemies: Lead them and us from prejudice to truth; deliver them and us from hatred, cruelty, and revenge; and in your good time enable us all to stand reconciled before you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN!

All may return to their seats.

All who are able, please stand.

Almighty Father, strong to save, whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

O Christ, the Lord of hill and plain o'er which our traffic runs amain
By mountain pass or valley low; wherever, Lord, thy people go,
Protect them by thy guarding hand from every peril on the land.

O Spirit, whom the Father sent to spread abroad the firmament;
O Wind of heaven, by thy might save all who dare the eagle's flight,
And keep them by thy watchful care from every peril in the air.

O Trinity of love and power, our people shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe, protect them wheresoe'er they go,

First Lesson

Reader 1 A reading of Malachi chapter 4, verses 1 through 2a.

See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings.

Reader 1 Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Unison Reading

Reader 1 Let us read in unison Psalm 98.

All Sing to the LORD a new song, With a right hand and a holy arm has God won the victory. The LORD has made known the victory; God's righteousness has been openly shown in the sight of the nations. The Lord remembers mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel, and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God. Shout with joy to the LORD, all you lands; lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing. Sing to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the voice of song. With trumpets and the sound of the horn shout with joy before the King, the LORD. Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it, the lands and those who dwell therein. Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the hills ring out with joy before the LORD, who will come to judge the earth. In righteousness shall God judge the world and the peoples with equity.

New Testament

Reader 2 A reading of 2nd Thessalonians chapter 3, verses 6 through 13.

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

Reader 2 Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Gospel

Luke 21. 5-19

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down." They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?" And he said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them. When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls."

Nicene Creed

Celebrant Let us join in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. AMEN!

Invitation to Communion

from the Iona Community, Scotland

Celebrant The table of bread and wine is now to be made ready. It is the table of company with Jesus, and all who love him. It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world, with whom Jesus identified himself. It is the table of communion with the earth, in which Christ became incarnate. So come to this table, you who have much faith and you who would like to have more; you who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time; you who have tried to follow Jesus, and you who have failed; come.

Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

Celebrant God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Celebrant From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

All Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

All By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take... eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

All We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers: God of Abraham and Sarah, of Isaac and Rebekah, of Jacob, Leah, and Rachel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

All Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

You sent your Son to save us — a gift from heaven above!

The mission that you give us is grounded in your love.

Sometimes, O Lord, we've struggled with our own busy plans.

We've tried to shape the gospel to fit our hearts and hands.

We've trusted our own culture to be the guiding way.

Yet you are still the potter and we are still the clay.

We see the work you're doing; it's not ours to control.

You're building and renewing! You make the wounded whole!

God, may your Spirit guide us to live in Jesus Christ, till love shapes all our mission and gives your church new life.

11/6 Update from Rector, Wardens, & Vestry regarding upcoming transition

Now that we have all been made aware of Amma Diane's plan to retire at the end of the year, we want to share with you that we are very blessed to be members of The Episcopal Church and blessed to be part of the congregation of St James in particular.

The Episcopal Church and The Diocese of Fond du Lac have guidelines and rules — a "plan" — for us to follow through this upcoming transition period.

Amma Diane is still our Rector until her last day, and as such, she will be working closely with the Wardens and Vestry, along with the Transition Ministries Officer of the Diocese, The Rev Meredyth Albright, and Bishop Matt Gunter, to help us make the transition from Amma Diane to our next Rector as smoothly as possible.

We will keep the congregation informed as we move through the plan and process. Our congregational life and all of its offerings will continue throughout this time.

We ask you to pray with us through this process. We ask that you stay committed to our life together. St James as a congregation is in a healthy place which will help this journey have a successful outcome. In the spirit of our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry, let us keep our focus on Jesus and his Way of Love.

Sign up for Amma Diane's farewell party 12/18

St James Episcopal Church is the oldest continually operating congregation of any type in Manitowoc County. Our origins trace to missionary pastors starting in 1841. We organized formally as a congregation in 1848, the year Wisconsin gained statehood.

Since 1848, St James has been served by 41 pastors, including The Rev Diane M Murray (Amma Diane) who will be retiring as our Rector on 12/31/2022 after 13.5 years. Only two pastors in our 181-year history served our congregation for longer durations: William Harvey (27 years) and Franklin St Clair (23 years). We are grateful for the 13.5 years Amma Diane has served as our Rector, as well as the prior 1.5 years she ministered with us while she was a Deacon.

On Sunday, December 18, we will celebrate with a farewell party (Packers are off). Following 10AM Worship we'll all meet at the Harrigan Parkside Gathering Center 2 blocks away for a catered meal. We want everybody to have the opportunity to celebrate, so there will be no tickets/charge. We will need a head count soon, so please add your names on the sign-up sheet as soon as possible. Additional details will follow soon.

Honoring Veterans and Military 11/13

God calls us to be people of peace saying, "Blessed are the peacemakers", and reminding us that we are to love our neighbor and enemy as we love ourselves. There are times we as a global community fail to live out those words; times when young men and women hear the call to don the uniforms of their country and serve under their flag. Join us for 10AM worship on Sunday, November 11, which will include a time of remembrance, recognizing, and honoring veterans and those currently serving. Invite any veterans or currently serving military you know to join us for this special day.

Thanksgiving at St James 11/24

We're re-introducing our tradition of Thanksgiving at St James. We gather for Worship together at 10AM. After worship we will gather for fellowship and games in the fellowship hall as some of the food is being prepared. At Noon we will share in a pot-luck style Thanksgiving meal. This celebration is open to the family and friends of St James. There is a sign-up sheet in church. Please talk to Eleanor Agnew or Amma Diane if you have questions.

NEW! Ecumenical Blue Christmas 12/3 at 9AM

Blue Christmas is a special Worship service that honors the different types of grief, loss, and pain we or others are experiencing in this season, and helps us look toward the hope of Jesus Christ. Join us at Peace UCC (3613 Waldo Blvd) at 9AM on Saturday 12/3 as we Worship together with our ELCA, Presbyterian, and UCC siblings.

You can also participate online LIVE at 9AM or view later at facebook.com/mcmunited

Next Painting Pathways event 12/8

Painting Pathways Clubhouse supports and empowers those with mental illness in Manitowoc County by building community and supporting recovery. PPC is one of our long-term ministry partners: several people from St James were instrumental in helping this non-profit form in Manitowoc; we've provided work opportunities; we supported the capital campaign for their new building; and we let them use our building during their construction.

In October we began a series of events to strengthen our relationships as individuals beyond our larger organizations. St James brought pot luck dishes to share. It was a wonderful evening—thanks to all who participated! On Thursday, December 8 from 4-6PM we'll gather again at PPC (1226 Washington St) to enjoy a meal and fellowship, including games with their members. Painting Pathways will provide the food, but a head count will help planning. There is a sign-up sheet in the church.

NEW! Christmas Poinsettia donations by 12/11

Help make our Sanctuary extra special during the Christmas season. You may donate toward our Christmas poinsettias in honor/memory of your loved ones and cherished moments. Donations may be put in the offering plate or mailed to the church—include a note including any "in honor of", "in memory of", or "in celebration of" intentions. Please make donations and intentions by December 11.

NEW! Help decorate the church on 12/10; bring nativity scenes to display

All are invited to gather at 9AM on Saturday 12/10 to help decorate our church for the Christmas season. This will be our December monthly fellowship group activity. Please feel free to bring snacks/food if you like.

In addition to the decorations on hand, we'd like to again set up a special display of your nativity scenes in the front of the Sanctuary (you can bring more than one). Bring yours on Saturday 12/10, or bring it the previous Sunday if you can't make it on 12/10. Items will be displayed on 12/18, 12/24, 12/25, and 1/1.

UPDATED! Help us spread holiday cheer!

Visit from St Nicholas on 12/11; Cookie/treat donations needed by 12/11; help us prepare deliveries on 12/11

Join us on Sunday 12/11 for a special fun day, and be sure to bring the kids/grandkids/friends along (Packers are off). 10AM Worship will include a special visit from St Nicholas who will share his story of his journey from bishop to a beloved Christmas hero.

Then, help us spread holiday cheer for the Advent and Christmas seasons! We'd like to once again prepare Christmas cookies/treats to distribute to all the households of our congregation. Our goal is to collect a total of about 65 dozen cookies, candies, and/or other holiday treats, as well as 65 cookie tins/holiday containers/bags to share. Your donations of these items can be brought to church any time between now and December 11 and left on the counters in the church kitchen. If you bring items early, please make sure they are labeled and wrapped to stay fresh until mid-December.

We need your help after 10AM Worship on Sunday, December 11 (the Packers are off) to help us sort and package the items. Volunteers can deliver to those who aren't at church on December 11, and those who are present can take their treats with them. We'll also have a letter from the Vestry and other materials on that date.

If you have other questions, please contact Tony Karl.

NEW! Christmas Eve Worship 12/24 at 6:30PM; Christmas Day Worship 12/25 at 10AM; Christmas Hymn Sing Worship 1/1 at 10AM

Join us starting at 6:30PM on Saturday 12/24 for a musical prelude celebrating Christ's birth. Anybody who'd like to sing or play a song is welcome to do so—talk to Worship Coordinator Tony Karl if you are interested or have questions. Worship begins at 7PM, with a Lessons & Carols format and festive music, ending with our Sanctuary softly glowing by candle light.

Gather for Amma Diane's last Sunday with St James, at 10AM on Sunday 12/25, as we celebrate Christmas one last time together..

Christmas Season lasts through Epiphany (1/6). 10AM Worship on Sunday 12/25 will continue the celebration of Christ's birth with a Christmas hymn sing. Barb Cook will be on hand to tickle the ivories for this special celebration. Be ready to request your favorite Christmas songs from our blue Hymnal 1982 book.

UPDATED! Please return adopt-a-family gifts 12/4

Thanks to all who signed out for our adopt-a-family project. On Sunday 12/4 we will gather all the donated gifts and gift cards for the families we have adopted and the other individuals that will receive the gift cards. They will be brought to the front of the church to receive a blessing from Amma Diane, and they will be delivered to the Salvation Army on Monday. The Holy Spirit has really touched hearts in our congregation as evidenced by the abundance of gifts given. It is such a blessing to see this happen! Thank you so much!

Please remember that the gifts need to be unwrapped, but donations of wrapping paper and ribbon are much appreciated also. If you have questions, please contact Karleen Cole at 920/629-0435 or colekarleen@gmail.com

NEW! Shared by Junior Warden Mary Green

Blessed are the agnostics. Blessed are they who doubt. Blessed are those who have nothing to offer. Blessed are the preschoolers who cut in line at communion. Blessed are the poor in spirit. You are of heaven and Jesus blesses you. Blessed are those whom no one else notices. The kids who sit alone at middle-school lunch tables. The laundry guys at the hospital. The sex workers and the night-shift street sweepers. The closeted. The teens who have to figure out ways to hide the new cuts on their arms. Blessed are the meek. You are of heaven and Jesus blesses you. Blessed are they who have loved enough to know what loss feels like. Blessed are the mothers of the miscarried. Blessed are they who can't fall apart because they have to keep it together for everyone else. Blessed are those who "still aren't over it yet". Blessed are those who mourn. You are of heaven and Jesus blesses you. I imagine Jesus standing here blessing us because that is our Lord's nature. This Jesus cried at his friend's tomb, turned the other cheek, and forgave those who hung him on a cross. He was God's Beatitude — God's blessing to the weak in a world that admires only the strong.
