Opportunities to receive ashes on Ash Wednesday

Since we aren't able to gather in person for this ecumenical event, our congregations are offering multiple opportunities throughout the day to receive ashes in Manitowoc and Two Rivers. Just as anybody who attends our annual community service in-person can receive ashes from any of the participating clergy, we invite you to receive ashes at whatever time and location you like. All are welcome at any of these options.

ASHES AT HOME: St James Episcopal Church will be delivering ashes to households of the congregation prior to Ash Wednesday, for those who'd like to apply ashes at home while watching the service online or reading the bulletin.

Vestry Notes

- ◆ UPDATED! Congregational deliveries were made starting around 2/11. These contain Annual Reports, updated directories, kit for blessing your homes, Ash Wednesday ashes, Lenten devotionals, and more.
- ◆ NEW! Bishop Matt Gunter and his wife, Leslie, are beginning a sabbatical on 2/15. We pray this is a time of refreshment and renewal for both of their ministries. Bishop Matt recently began serving as Bishop Provisional for the Diocese of Eau Claire and Visiting Bishop for the Diocese of Milwaukee.

NEW! New Bible Study starting 2/21: 1 Corinthians

Join us Sundays from 8:45-9:45AM on Sundays starting 2/21 for a Bible Study of 1 Corinthians. Use any bible translation(s) you like; no other book/guide needed. We'll read and discuss one chapter each week, with the following questions in mind: 1) What stands out to you in the passage we are studying?; 2) What do you have a question about or want to know more about?; 3) What can you apply from the passage to your daily faith journey?; and 4) If you were to talk to a friend about this passage what would you talk about? Amma Diane recommends the following video overview to start:

NEW! St James Book Group 2/24 at 7PM

The St James Book Group will continue to meet virtually for the time being due to the continued pandemic and our desire to keep people as protected as possible. St James leadership will regularly review the ability to gather in-person again in conjunction with our Bishop and input from those who attend the Book Group gathering. We plan to continue to offer the Book Group virtually for those who wish to attend in that manner even after we can gather once again in person. Our virtual gatherings may be joined by either telephone or the internet (you may choose to use video or not on the internet connection).

The book we are reading in February is Wait Till Next Year, Doris Kearns Goodwin's touching memoir of growing up in love with her family and baseball. Set in the suburbs of New York in the 1950s, Wait Till Next Year re-creates the postwar era, when the corner store was a place to share stories and neighborhoods were equally divided between Dodger, Giant, and Yankee fans. We meet the people who most influenced Goodwin's early life: her mother, who taught her the joy of books but whose debilitating illness left her housebound; and her father, who taught her the joy of baseball and to root for the Dodgers of Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella, Pee Wee Reese, Duke Snider, and Gil Hodges. Most important, Goodwin describes with eloquence how the Dodgers' leaving Brooklyn in 1957, and the death of her mother soon after, marked both the end of an era and, for her, the end of childhood.

If you would like to borrow a book from the inter-library loan, please contact Anne Schuette (920-242-2819). Anne will continue to be our liaison for the Interlibrary books. Please feel free to participate even if you have not read the book. Invite a friend. If you have technical difficulties Amma Diane Murray (920-860-5152) will try to help you.
