

The office of English Language Learner Services has been working on monitoring the services and progress of our English learners. We have been holding Reclassification ceremonies for EL who met the criteria, and monitoring intervention programs and services for students who may need them.

We also visited some of our school sites and observed the engagement of our students when learning. Students were eager to participate in class activities and successfully participated in classroom activities that enhanced the development of English development and literacy.

