

Author/Illustrator Lizzy Rockwell to Visit Stillmeadow

Author/Illustrator Lizzy Rockwell returns to Stillmeadow on December 9 to share her new book – How Do You Feel – with students in grades K-2. Families may preorder a copy of How Do You Feel ($19, hardcover) to be autographed by Ms. Rockwell when she visits Stillmeadow. This is a wonderful opportunity to get an autographed, inscribed copy of a children’s book for your child.

How Do You Feel?

By Lizzy Rockwell

How Do You Feel? uses narrative art and few words to reveal varied and fluid emotions of ten children playing in a city playground. Visual storytelling gives readers space to interpret and discuss the facial expressions, events, and interactions in their own way. Guided conversation allows children to trust their keen ability to decode and name feelings in themselves and others, developing emotional intelligence, self-awareness and empathy.
