

To Whom It May Concern:

The Community Writers Group of Los Angeles (“CWGLA”) is a 501(c)(3) organization founded in 2014 by the late Elise Woodson, a former educator. The mission of the organization is to preserve African American history by recording and publishing personal narratives.

ELISE WOODSON SCHOLARSHIP AWARD & ELISE WOODSON EDUCATION STIPEND:

CWGLA is looking for African American and LatinX junior and senior high school students to participate in the “We See You” Creative Writing Contest (the “Contest”). Eligible participants will qualify to receive the Elise Woodson Scholarship Award or the Elise Woodson Education Stipend (see Contest Guidelines for details).

SNAPSHOTS: STUDENT EDITION VOLUME 3:

In addition to monetary awards, all eligible Contest participants will become published authors in CWGLA’s Snapshots: Student Edition, Volume 3 publication.

Attached please find the Participant Guidelines, Parental/Guardian Consent. Also attached is a sample student narrative for participants to review.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE - June 1, 2022, 11:59PM (PST).

Thank you for sharing this information with your students.

Sincerely,
