

Why Attend “Your” International Convention?

Make no mistake about it, the International Convention is your Convention! It's a place for you to have fun, meet new friends, reconnect with old friends, network, and exchange ideas with Optimists from around the world.

There is also the opportunity to participate in exciting training sessions, be inspired, and improve your leadership skills.

And last, but not least, explore the historical sites, museums, and other amenities of Arlington, Virginia, Maryland, and Washington, D.C. the capital of the United States!
