

This week marked the 70th anniversary of the Independence of the State of Israel! Yom Ha'atzmaut in Israel is always preceded by Yom Hazikaron, Israel's Memorial Day. The order of these two days has a beautiful message-Israelis owe their independence to the soldiers who sacrificed their lives for it. In America, we commemorate Memorial Day by having barbeques, shopping promotions, and fun days off of school or work. In Israel, Yom Hazikaron is a day of reverence. Twice a siren goes off, indicating a country wide moment of silence, most shops and restaurants are closed, and radio and television stations are broadcasting relevant subject matter. This year in America, let us take after Israel's example and take a moment to honor those who have lost their lives protecting the country we live in. Let us say thank you to our friends, family, and security who serve to protect us and our right to live our lives as Jews in America. Shabbat Shalom.

MISSING GEMARAS!

We have just taken inventory of the Artsroll Shas, and Volumes of gemara are missing from the shul. The following volumes appear to be missing: volumes 1, 12, 13, 16, 25, 30, and 60. If you should happen to know where any of these volumes are it would be greatly appreciated if they would be returned to the shul office.

AIPAC ISRAEL UPDATE

April 20 2018

Iranian Drone Shot Down in Northern Israel in February was Armed with Explosives

Israel revealed on Friday that an Iranian drone shot down in Israeli airspace in February after launching from an airbase in Syria was carrying explosives. According to the Times of Israel, the base was attacked last Monday, allegedly by Israel, in a strike that reportedly targeted Iran's entire attack drone weapons system —prompting soaring tensions between Israel and Iran. The Iranian drone shot down in February was carrying enough explosives to cause damage, military sources said. Its precise intended target in Israel was not known, they said. The February incident marked an unprecedented direct Iranian attack on Israel. Israel's acknowledgement of the nature of the drone's mission "brings the confrontation" between Israel and Iran "into the open" for the first time, Israel's Channel 10 news noted Friday. Iranian officials, for their part, have been vowing a response to the Monday airstrike, and an adviser to Iran's supreme leader last Thursday threatened Israel with destruction.
