NCSI 2023 Annual Meeting

Conference Speaker Application & Guidelines

The National Council of Self-Insurers' has supported the interests of workers' compensation self-insurers since 1946. We welcome speakers in a wide variety of topics that are geared towards the specific needs of our members.

Do you have an idea for a great presentation or have a subject matter that you would like covered that fits with our theme? If so, submit your proposals here!

Selection Criteria:

- All presentations must focus on ways for self-insured employers to improve the governance or management of their workers' compensation programs. We are specifically looking for topics that have the "how to . . ." as the main take-away.
- All panels must include a self-insured employer representative.
- Individual presentations will be assigned an NCSI Board of Managers member to moderate the session.
- Topics should be innovative, current, engaging and relevant to self-insured employers, claims administrators, adjusters, and attorneys in the management of workers' compensation claims.
- Speaker(s) must be industry experts on the topic and passionate about the subject.
- Topics must be eligible for continuing education credits for adjusters and attorneys.
- Preference will be given to speakers who are members of NCSI.

Speakers must conform to the following guidelines:

- Refrain from any direct marketing of a product or service during the presentation and in the presentation slides
- Provide content by the print deadlines, which will be provided upon selection of the topic
- Presented using the NCSI Template
