Welcome

The Palm Sunday Gospel

Mark 11:1-11

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.'" They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, some people standing there asked, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!" "Hosanna in the highest heaven!" Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Gospel

Mark 14:3-9

While he was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head. Some of those present were saying indignantly to one another, "Why this waste of perfume? It could have been sold for more than a year's wages and the money given to the poor." And they rebuked her harshly. "Leave her alone," said Jesus. "Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me. She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial. Truly I tell you, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."

Confession and Forgiveness (L = Leader; C = Congregation)

L: As we enter this Holy Week, let us silently confess our sins to the Lord.

L: Oh Jesus,

C: Forgive me, for I do not know what I am doing. I have betrayed you with the false kiss of lukewarm familiarity. I have not worshipped you with my whole heart. In my intentional and blind rebellion, I am as guilty as those who cried "Crucify him!" I have let fear freeze me into inaction. I have neglected to help those in need and to share my faith with others. With my every sin, I have crucified you. Forgive my many sins and renew your right spirit within me. Amen.

↑ L: As a follower of Jesus, I have the responsibility and privilege of announcing to you that, when Jesus died and rose again, he forgave you all your sins; in the name of the Father, and of the +☩Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen. I am fully justified and made right with God!

The Apostle's Creed

C: I believe in God the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

L: Turning our hearts to God who is gracious and merciful, we pray for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

After each prayer ... L: Hear us, O God.

C: Your mercy is great.

L: According to your steadfast love, O God, hear these and all our prayers as we commend them to you; through Christ our Lord.

C: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Benediction

L: May the blessing of God, Father, † Son, and Holy Spirit remain with you always.

C: Amen

 Mark that mir - a - cle of time, God's own sac - ri - fice com-plete.
 All is sol - i - tude and gloom. Who has tak - en him a - way?

Turn not from his griefs a - way; Learn from Je - sus Christ to pray.
 Shun not suf - f'ring, shame, or loss; Learn from him to bear the cross.
 "It is fin-ished!" hear him cry; Learn from Je - sus Christ to die.
 Christ is ris'n! He meets our eyes. Sav - ior, teach us so to rise.
