

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International Student Experience Panel

The Office of International Affairs is currently seeking international students to serve as panelists, as part of a workshop series to educate faculty and staff about the “International Student Experience.” It will be a three-part series, covering the topics shown below. The panel will be a central component of each workshop, during which students will answer questions from attendees about their experiences at Ohio State, based on the day’s topic.

Panels will be held at the following times, and international students can volunteer for one or more.

Workshop I: Pre-arrival and Check-In and Orientation

Date 1: Tuesday, January 15, panel at 9:30 a.m.

Date 2: Friday, January 18, panel at 9:30 a.m.

Workshop II: Cultural Adjustment

Date 1: Monday, February 18, panel at 1:30 p.m.

Date 2: Monday, February 25, panel at 1:30 p.m.

Workshop III: Academics and Career Expectations

Date 1: Tuesday, March 19, panel at 10:30 a.m.

Date 2: Tuesday, March 26, panel at 10:30 a.m.

This is a great chance to voice your perspective about what it is like to be an international student at Ohio State!

Interested international students should contact Caroline Omolesky.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

140 Enarson Classroom Building | 2009 Millikin Road | Columbus, Ohio 43210

614-292-6101 | oia.osu.edu