

OPEN OUR HEARTS AT THE MISSION, A SACRED PLACE

MUSICAL AND ARTISTIC BRIDGES

A Workshop beginning with history of worship, music, and art of the Mission, and a celebration of music and the arts, where Brother Rufino Zaragoza and Jesse Manibusan share music growing from many languages and cultures and in awe of God's sacred creation.

- Opening our hearts as we learn from and pray with internationally acclaimed musicians, Jesse Manibusan and Brother Rufino Zaragoza, OFM at Mission Concepcion
- Joining Sister Martha Ann Kirk, CCVI, inviting youth to build Artistic Bridges with song, art, drama, and dance through the Charter for Compassion reaching out to over a hundred countries.
- Glimpsing Mark's Gospel: a Drama of Hope with José Rubén De León. Binisa Zentella will sing an 'Alabado' in Pajalate, one of the languages of the indigenous peoples of San Antonio.
