

SUMMER SOLTICE CELEBRATION

Thiensville Health Alliance, 136 N Main St. 3rd Floor

Saturday June 22, 7:00 – 8:45 PM

With Ron Moor and Sandra Zahn

Using Drums, Percussion Instruments, Gongs and Bowls.

We gather to celebrate life at this time of the Summer Solstice when the POWER of the individual to make conscious choices is at its MAXIMUM. The Winter Solstice is the rebirth of the Divine Masculine and the Sun. The Summer Solstice is the time of the rebirth of Divine Feminine and the Moon.

Communities now rejoice in the many gifts of the Great Mother in her myriad manifestations of Female Power, Nurturer and Creatrix. Now we celebrate the heightened sense of energy all around, the success of the spring planting and the joy of new love. Communities celebrate the commitment to an abundant future expressed in new relationships, ripening corn and wheat in the field, tomatoes forming on the vine and the sharing of the first ruby red strawberries.

We will drum, tone, ring the gong and singing bowls and draw as we celebrate together and welcome the rebirth of the feminine soul. Bring your drums, rattles, rain sticks and singing bowls.

Our gatherings are facilitated by Ron Moor who walked the Red Road of the Beauty Way for almost 40 years. He was mentored by Heyemeyohsts Storm, Swan Storm, Mary Elizabeth Thunder, Rosalyn R. Bruyere and with Lakota Medicine Man, Basil Braveheart. He is a sanctioned carrier of the sacred medicine pipe.

Sandra Zahn is an award winning Artist, Educator and Art Therapist who consults with schools, colleges, social service agencies, churches and 44 American Indian tribes.

Fee is $15. Please call Ron at 952-929-1559 to register by June 20.

If you can't, last minute attendees are welcome.
