Saturday, 1 p.m.

American Lawmen: Tom Smith

(1 hr., 17 min.)

Using his fists instead of a pistol, a professional boxer turned frontier lawman Tom Smith is determined to clean up 'Hell on Earth.' This is the little-known story of one of the greatest lawmen of the Wild West.

Saturday, 2:30 p.m.

Abilene Town

(1 hr., 29 min.)

Randolph Scott, Ann Dvorak

In the years following the Civil War, the town of Abilene, Kansas, is poised on the brink of an explosive confrontation. A line has been drawn down the center of town where the homesteaders and the cattlemen have come to a very uneasy truce.

Saturday, 4 p.m.

The Old Chisholm Trail

(1hr.)

Johnny Mack Brown, Mady Correll, Tex Ritter

Dusty Gardner, bringing a herd up the Chisholm Trail, is looking for water. Belle Turner has water but wants an exorbitant price for it. When Dusty and his men start a well, Belle and her men set out to stop them.

Sunday, High Noon

South of the Chisholm Trail

(1 hr., 37 min.)

Charles Starrett, Nancy Saunders

When the ranchers of Bearcat are plagued by rustlers, Big Jim Grady offers to buy their herds at low-ball prices. Steve Haley suggests that they band together and drive their herds to Abilene and get full price.

Sunday, 2 p.m.

Showdown at Abilene

(1 hr., 20 min.)

Jack Mahoney, Martha Hyer

Jim Trask, former sheriff of Abilene, returns to the town after fighting for the Confederacy to find everyone thought he was dead. His old friend, Dave Mosely, is now engaged to Trask's former sweetheart and is one of the cattlemen increasingly feuding with the original farmers.
