

WATER JUSTICE
MARCH 22-24, 2017
TRINITY INSTITUTE 2017

Charlemont Forum and Rowe Center invite you to attend Trinity Institute, an annual conference that is webcast live from New York City.

LOCATION THIS YEAR IS THE ACADEMY AT CHARLEMONT.

Come hear speakers and participate in discussions around water justice and water as sacred gift. Local speakers on Wednesday evening will be water protectors, Ashley Berry and Rhonda Anderson, an Inupiaq-Athabaskan Native American from Alaska who now lives in Colrain.

ALSO VIA LIVE-STREAM FEATURING: CHRISTIANA PEPPARD AND MAUDE BARLOW

Barbara Boxer  United States Senator from California, 1993-2007. Former Ranking Member of the Senate Environment Committee	Winston Halapua  Archbishop of Polynesia and Aotearoa New Zealand, author, and dean	Katharine Hayhoe  Author, climate scientist and director of the Climate Science Center at Texas Tech University	Thabo Makgoba  Archbishop of Cape Town, South Africa, past chair of the Anglican Communion Environmental Network
--	--	---	---

The Academy at Charlemont on the Mohawk Trail/ Route 2 near Charlemont, MA

Wednesday, March 22 at 5:00, and March 23 and 24 from 9 - 5, with the possibility of a film on Thursday night.

Suggested donation is $25.

To pre-register or learn more, contact
Trinitycharlemont@gmail.com or Pam Porter, 413-337-5525

For speaker bios and conference schedule, contact Trinity Institute at www.ti2016.org

