

CHARLEMONT FORUM 2019

AT THE CHARLEMONT FEDERATED CHURCH

---

INSPIRING LECTURES | RESPECTFUL DIALOGUE

JUNE 27, 2019 | 7:00PM

Liz Theoharis

The Poverty Precipice:
Who's on the Edge - or Over it - and Why

Liz Theoharis co-launched the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival in 2018. Having worked two decades organizing the poor and dispossessed in the U.S., she will detail the economic fragility of 140 million Americans, the economic and social issues undergirding their status, and political actions required for change.

JULY 24, 2019 | 7:00PM

Peter de Menocal

Farmer, Banker, Soldier, Spy -
Why They Care About Climate Change

Peter de Menocal, Dean of Science at Columbia University, is the founding director of Center for Climate and Life. He will speak on the global security threat of climate change, how some of the most urgent advocacy comes from the private and military sectors which face these risks existentially, and the energy solutions underway to address this pending global crisis.

---

FREE to the public, though donations are welcome

Charlemont Federated Church | 175 Main St., Charlemont, MA 413 339 4294

Supported by the following Cultural Councils: Amherst, Buckland, Charlemont, Hawley, Conway, Heath, Plainfield, Leyden & Shelburne.

Like us on Facebook to learn more. facebook.com/charlemontforum