

PREACHING THROUGH THE ELECTION SEASON

A CONVERSATION W/ BACKSTORY PREACHING'S LISA CRESSMAN

Rev. Dr. Lisa Cressman

Rev. Dr. Leah Schade

Tuesday, October 13 | 7:00-8:15 P.M. EDT

Lisa Cressman is the author of The Gospel People Don't Want to Hear: Preaching Challenging Messages, and Founding Steward of Backstory Preaching, an online community supporting preachers in their task of crafting sermons with spirituality, practical tips, mentoring, and continuing education programs. In this live-streamed interview, Clergy Emergency League co-founder, Leah Schade, will talk with Lisa about the challenges of preaching during the most divisive election season in our lifetimes. How can we craft sermons that proclaim the gospel so that God's transformative power can reach our congregations? What shall we say, and how shall we say it?

This conversation will be streamed live:
