Come for some new perspectives on approaching stewardship with Chick Lane and Grace Pomroy!

Charles R. Lane and Grace Duddy Pomroy provide a diverse approach to their shared conviction —stewardship belongs at the heart of each individual and each congregation.

The day will include presentations by Lane and Pomroy, lunch, time for parishes to brainstorm with their team and with other teams, and 2 copies of the book, Embracing Stewardship, for each parish team.

Please note: Embracing Stewardship offers an approach to yearly stewardship. The information and new perspectives, however, will be invaluable with any program. It would be most helpful if you and your vestry/stewardship team have already considered various options for what approach or program you will be using. You will receive 2 copies of Embracing Stewardship per parish team, but you may want to explore this resource before coming so that your team will be able to do meaningful work together on the September 29th.
