

The Province 1 Christian Formation Network is hosting a series of online monthly “Conversations with Noted Speakers” on Zoom. While hosted by the Episcopal churches of New England everyone is welcome to join these sessions.

On the third Thursday of most months’ participants will have the opportunity to hear from people at the forefront of Christian Formation. Each session includes time for questions and conversation as we learn from each other new ways of sharing our faith. Below is the information for our 3rd year of speakers. To sign up click the links below each session.

Small Church Formation: Using Our Strengths- The Rev. Allison Sandin Liles

The Rev. Allison Sandlin Liles is a wife, mother, peacemaker, and priest who lives with her family in Dallas. After working as Episcopal Peace Fellowship’s Executive Director for six years, Allison re-entered parish ministry in 2018 as the Vicar of St Stephen’s Episcopal Church in Hurst, Texas. She also serves as the editor of GrowChristians.org, an online ministry of Forward Movement devoted to helping adults deepen the faith of children in their care. When she’s not working, it’s almost certain that you’ll find Allison in one of four places: reading on her Kindle in the front yard hammock, volunteering at Operation Kindness Animal Shelter, walking one of her family’s two dogs, or begging her tween/teen children to create/craft/cook with her.
