

Let's Go To Boston:
For History, For Faith,
For Learning, For Fun
Thursday, June 13

Sponsored by Christ Church Cathedral, Springfield, Massachusetts
A trip for parishioners and clergy throughout the diocese.

King's Chapel (founded 1686; at the center of Boston ever since)
Cathedral Church of St. Paul (home base for the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts with a glorious history extending back to 1819)
Museum of Fine Arts (home to hundreds of Jewish artifacts from around the world; beauty and tradition on our doorstep)
The Newton Mikveh - Living Waters (for women, men, and children...a brand new facility...predecessor of Christian Baptism)

Our day will include bus transportation to Boston, admissions, and guided tours at all sites. We will begin at the Central Library parking lot on State Street at 7:45 a.m. Return will be at 7:30 p.m.

Mark Shapiro, Rabbi in Residence, will be the overall guide for the day.
