

Love.Earth.Justice.2022: Multi-faith Worship and Workshops to Make a Difference

Sunday, October 16: 2-5pm

First Unitarian Church of Worcester

90 Main Street, within walking distance of Worcester train station

On-site parking available, use State St entrance
Also at Wesley United Methodist, across the street

*An Accessible Event: Participate in person or by Zoom!
Covid safety protocols: Masks recommended, required in Sanctuary*

At 2 pm: Join us for a celebratory multi-faith service, with prayer, song and reflection from diverse faith traditions.
Sermon by Rev. Vernon K. Walker, Executive Director of CREW (Communities Responding to Extreme Weather)

At 3 pm and 4 pm: Choose from workshops to help you build skills and engagement for climate action and resilience:

- Charting a pathway to net zero for your house of worship
- Building a climate resilience hub in your community
- Community organizing, one conversation at a time
- Advancing climate policy at the local level

Rev. Vernon K. Walker

More information, contact info, and registration at: <https://bit.ly/lej-2022>

This event offered free of charge thanks to the generosity of MassIPL, WCCEJ and our many co-sponsors to date:

MASSACHUSETTS
Interfaith Power & Light

350 Central Mass
Boundless Way Zen Temple
Boston Catholic Climate Movement
Christian Community Church
CREW: Communities Responding to Extreme Weather
Episcopal Diocese of Western Mass
First Congregational Church of Worcester
Hadwen Park Congregational Church
Jewish Alliance for Law and Social Action

Mothers out Front Worcester
NAACP, Worcester Branch
Religious Action Center of MA
Iglesia Roca de Salvacion
Southern New England United Congregational Church
Temple Emanuel Sinai Worcester
Unitarian Universalist Church of Worcester
UU Mass Action
Wesley United Methodist Church
Worcester Interfaith