temperatures hovering around 104° F pushed me to pick up a poke bowl from our local favorite, @butterfishpoke. A glass of Robaliño Albariño from the @riasbaixaswines region of Spain is a most lovely pairing.

I've enjoyed and paired this white wine each of the last three years. Love its perfume of citrus, grapefruit, lemon peel and white peach, with floral and almond notes. The vivid palate is light, elegant, fresh, and mouthwatering with a long, lingering finish.

The perfect summer pair. 🌞 What do you like on your poke bowl? I

Tomioño - Taberna Gallega

winedinewanda We couldn't make it to Galicia for the Albariño Week festivities, so the lovely folks from Rias Baixas were kind enough to host a celebration for us in NYC! It was a great evening of beautiful Albariño wines paired with authentic Galician food at the fantastic restaurant Tomioño Taberna Gallega. @riasbaixaswines @tominonyc @gregoryandvine #albariñoweek #riasbaixas #albariño #galicia #instawine #winestagram #spanishwine #wineanddine #winenot #winelovers 🍷 #winedinewanda #delicious #cheers #whitewine #wine #vino #vin petitwinetraveler What a tasty week this has been!!

#albariñoweek 🇪🇸 🍷

I'm loving exploring the cool, Atlantic-influenced #RiasBaixasAlbariño area in northwest Spain. And I have been wowed by this delicious #albariño @bodmartincodax #Burgans This wine has a brilliant vivid nose of tropical fruit notes with bright floral and luscious, ripe stone-fruit aromas. On the palate this wine has a salty tang, from the cool Atlantic Ocean, with tropical fruit and hints of banana as the wine warms, although it's crisp acidity never waivers. This ultimate summertime wine is a perfect burgundynick Review #119 #santiagoruiz #riasbaixas #albarino 2018. Very good wine, lots of aromas of peaches and flowers. The palate is a bit more delicate, but great balance with more stone fruit, a hint of the tropics and a nice finish. A cut above the standard fare and about on the money £16.50 from @harrogatewines thanks for the recommendation Andy 🙌👉👉👉👉
